4 The collection work will not continue throughout the month. There are two attenders and two peons. It is a matter for consideration whether a whole-time bill collector on Rs 10 a month is absolutely necessary and whether by a slight redistribution of work for the temporary period (the collection period) say the 1st week of every month – the collection work cannot be carried on with the existing hands.

Subd.

20.4.15 Information as to the number of subscribers & the total monthly demand is also necessary before it can be decided whether the appointment of a Special bill collector can be justified.

6 On the facts now available in the file, there does not appear to be any case for an additional hand.

FROM

The Secretary,
Education Committee.

To

P. G. D'Souza, Esq., B.A., B.L.,

Officiating Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

Departments of Education and Agriculture, Bangalore.

SIR.

I am directed to state that the Library Committee, Bangalore, brings to notice the difficulty experienced for want of a bill collector for collecting subscriptions from the members who live at great distances from the Library and the consequent necessity for the appointment of a man for the purpose.

While making their recommendations in the matter, the Library Committee suggest that a bill collector on Rs 10 per mensem, whose pay will be met out of the collections, may be appointed on proper security. As the present staff of menials sanctioned for the Library is insufficient for this work also, I am to request that sanction of Government may be kindly obtained for the appointment proposed and also for inclusion of necessary provision in the budget of the Library submitted already.

The matter may be kindly treated as urgent.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

C. Kesavaiengar
